THE COURT WRONG.

CHIEF JUSTICE'S ADMISSION TO-DAY.

A PECULIAR POSITION.

Solicitor Debarred From Conduct of Case.

An extraordinary position arose to-day in a Full Court of Appeal case at the Supreme Court when the Chief Justice, after largument by Mr. Eldon Potter, K.C., admitted that permission to allow a solicitor to conduct the case for the respondent was wrong

Sir H. C. Gollan therefore allowed Mr. Potter's objection and said that the Court was itself largely to blame in that they had not fully considered the law when they allowed Mr. D. McCallum to appear in court to represent the respondent.

The case "was one which" had aiready been heard in the Full Court of Appeal but their Lord-Tahips had indicated that they desired a re-hearing including the calling of evidence. The point which had been argued at the first Appeal Court was that a landlord was not liable for the acts of his agent when such acts were illegal and the agent had no direct or implied authority to commit them. The point arose out of alleged illegal facts in regard to alleged damage to proper ty and barring up of premises by a rent colector, who failed to securé rent owing. In the court this morning Mr. Potter (instructed by Mr. H. C. Macnamara) appeared for the appellant for the setting aside of the order made against the landlord in the court below.

Mr. D. McCllum appeared to represent the respondent.

Mr. Potter's 'Argument. At the outset of the case Mr. Potter said that he felt it his duty to raise an objection. "He did not wish in any way to embarrass Mr. McCallum or their Lordships (Sir H. C. Gollan sat with the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice Wood). "The Court was sitting in independent and not Summary jurisdiction and Mr. McCallum had no right of audience. He (Mr. Potter) would be lacking in his duty if he did not raise this important point.

Mr. Potter quoted sections of the Supreme Court Summary Jurisdiction Ordinance laying particular emphasis on that part of it which stated "the Full Court shall have power on every appeal on questions of fact or questions of law to try the case de novo. The "Full Court" in that section, the claimed, meant a Full Court sitting in court of appeal. Their Lordships that morning were sitting, in appellant jurisdiction. It was on the appeal that they were trying the case de novo. His Lordship commented that 'Full Court" did not necessarily mean appeal court:

SHIPPING RATES.

ORDERED CUT TO PRE-WAR BASIS.

Manila, July 4. The shipping rates now in force on inter-island steamers operating between Manila and other ports all over the Philippines will be discontinued and pre-war or basic rates resumed beginning January 1, 1927, following the failure of Manila shipowners to file an application with the public utility commission on or before June 30, 1926, for the continuance of such rates.

The passenger rates when reduced to pre-war schedule will be 20 per cent. lower than the present rates, while the freight rates will be from 80 to 75 per cent. less. This means that for first class passengers the sum of 10 centavos will be charged per person for each nautical mile for distances not exceeding 100 miles. For over 100 miles but not exceeding 800 miles the rate will be nine centavos per mile and for over 800 miles, it will be eight, centavos per mile.

The third class will be 40 cent lower than the first class rates. The pre-war or basic rates were established years ago by the former board of rate regulation. During the world war, shipping rates jumped sky high, the increase being from 50 to 150 per cent. Gradual rea ductions were made by the public utility commission until December 29, 1924, when Judge del Rosario approved the present shipping rates. Thus, the increase in passenger rates was reduced from 50 per cent: for first class and 40 for third class to only 20 per cent, for both classes, while the increase in the freight rates were reduced from between 50 and 150 per cent. to between 30 and 75 per cent.

The was provided in the order of the public utility commission, that not later than June 30, 1926, the Manila shipowners should file an application for the continuance of the present shipping rates if they cared to do so. Because the Manila shipowners failed to comply with this provision of the order, the present rates will be discontinued effective January 1, 1927, and the pre-war or basic rates will be enforced, unless the shipowners file another petition for another increase of rates.

This reductions, however, does not affect the Cebu shipowners, as the order only includes vessels operating between Manila and the other parts. Boats operating between Cebu and other ports in the Visayan islands will have their present passenger rates decreased 50 per cent and their freight rates 10 per cent.

In a statement issued yesterday. Judge Mariano Cui resented an erroneous item published recently by a local daily which said that the public utility commission approved an increase in the present rates. whereas the utility commission had really ordered a decrease. The shipping rates formerly enforced on boats operating between Cebu and other Visayan ports were 15 per cent, more than the pre-war or basic rates for passengers, and 50 per cent. more for freight. With the new rates recently approved by the commissioner, the passenger rates are only 10 per cent. more and freight rates only 40 per/cent. more than the pre-war or basic rates.

HOME CABINET'S NEW SCHEME.

BAD DEBTS INSURANCE.

Rugby, July 12. Mr. A. M. Samuel, Parliamentary Secretary of the Department, of Overseas" Trade. gave to-day some further particulars about the new scheme approved by the Cabinet for insuring British firms, when sending goods abroad, against bad debts.

The principal provision of the scheme is that by which the Government will guarantee the British exporter 75 per cent. of the amount of eredit granted to the buyer in the foreign country. The guarantees will not be given for shipments to Russia.

For India, Ceylon, the Straits Settlements, and China they wi be granted only for such goods for which long credits are ordinarily required, such as bridges and aqueducts and other engineering works.

The premium will vary according to the circumstances.

Applications for these guarantees will come before the statutory Advisory Committee. Mr. Samuel announced its constitution to-day. Its Chairman is Colonel the Hon, Sidney Peal, Other members hold prominent positions in banking, finance, and insurance or industry, and they together represent a large -amount of lechnical and special knowledge of emport trading adhditions.

Mr. Samuel said that this scheme to further British export trade would operate for three years only, after which the Government hoped that the work would be taken over by the big insurance companies as a nev branch of their ordinary commercial transactions.—British Wireless Service, Scheme in Operation. London, July 12.

The Government's new expor. credits guarantee scheme came into operation to-day. Henceforth the Departmment of Overseas Trade will be responsible for the administration of the scheme, which will be known as the Export Credits: Guarantee Department.

Mr. A. M. Samuel, explaining to Press men the conditions of the scheme," said that its main object was to increase export trade and reduce unemployment. Of £26,000,000 money available under the Export Credits Act £6,000,000 was in use under the original scheme, and £20,000,000 remained fluid for the new Preliminaries Last Six Weeks. The preliminaries of the commercial treaty were held in Berlin, where they lasted for six weeks, moving thence to Japan; where they have been in progress for about eight months. Dr. Solf, the German Ambassador, has been i charge, assisted from time to time by leading industrialists of his country.

The projected treaty has been held up by the question of dyes, as Japan wishes to develop her own infant industry. Moreover, she has held the whip hand, as Germany's exports to Japan last year amounted to Y856,000,000 while Japan's exports to Germany totalled Y58,000,000, only. So it was to the advantage of Germany, rather than Japan, to obtain a commercial

However, the regions of South Manchuria under Japanese control produce about Y200,000,000 worth of soya beans and bean oil a year and Germany is the best customer for them. Her recent tariff on Bean imports was interpreted here as a move to support her claim for a commercial treaty.

During the war Japan decided to become independent with regard to dyes and the nitro-organic compounds used in explosives. Private capital shied, at the proposition until the Government offered to guarantee dividends at the rate of per cent, and put up a Y12,000,000,000 subsidy, to be an plied over a period of years.

DOCTOR-ORDERS-OPERATION ON SELF.

While the Union Castle liner 'Armadale Castle" was outward bound from Southampton the ship's doctor, Lt.-Col. A. F. A. Heaton, fell ill.

By the sister he sent a message to the captain saying: "I have diagnosed my case as appendicitis, and I wish to be operated on at once."

The vessel was at once headed for St. Helena at full speed, but the doctor's condition became worse, and an operation could no longer be delayed.

One of the lounges was fitted up as an operating theatre, and at night speed was reduced to dead slow, and two doctors among the passengers, Dr. B. Cooper and Dr. E. Sless, were awakened to perform the operation.

The doctor's condition remain ed critical, and he was landed at Cape Town. Here a second operation was performed, but he died. " His funeral at Cape Town was attended by hundreds of officers and men from ships in port.

Among he 180 guests were representatives of the Universities and professors of Canada, Australia, South Africa. India, and Hongkong, besides High Lord Eustage Percy said that the congress should aim at establishing some institution to promote the standard of" higher education throughout the Empire.

Sir Matthew Nathan, in replying, said that the demand for higher, knowledge was never so great as to-day. The demand was reaching phenomenal proportions in the United States, but it was noteworthy that there were now 43,000 i University students in Great Britain -double the pre-war figure-a large proportion of whom were Scottish.—Reuter.

London, July 12. The visit of M. INDIGNITY. GROSS

SPEAKER ON THE RECENT "SCENE."

UNMANNERLY M.P.'S.

London, July 12.

In the House of Commons, referring to the scene in the House of Lords on the 8th inst., in response to a Conservative question, the Speaker said that he regarded the incident as a gross indignity to himself and the House of Commons. He expressed shame for a breach of courtesy to an officer of Parliament bringing a message to the House of Commons and deep regret for the further discourtesy when he (the Speaker) attended the House of Lords.

Major W. P. Colfox (Conservative, Dorset, West) asked whether the Speaker would publicly apologise to the House of Lords for the unmainerly occurrences? The Labourite, Mr. Will Thorne (Plaistow) interjected: "You want the Speaker to go on his belly!" " The Labourite, Mr. G. D. Hardie (Springburn, Glasgow) shouted: "Get down on your knees."

The Labourite, Mr. J. J. Lawson, in spite of the restraining efforts of Mr Rumsay MacDonald (Labour leader), persisted in calling attention to the conduct of the Lords, who apparently forgot that they were dealing with the standard of

The Speaker 'emphasised that he was dealing only with matters concerning the Commons. He said that if the incident of the 8th inst. were repeated he would not hesitate to take adequate action.—Reuter. [The announcement in the House of Lords of the Royal assent to the Coal Mines Eight-Hours' Bill was marked by scenes of tumult on the 8th inst. Subsequently a Conservative and Labourite came to blows in the corridor of the House of Commons, but later became reconciled.]

THIEF BRANDED.

MISSIONARY'S GENTLE

Tokyo, July 12. The American Consul-General, Mr. Miller, at Seoul, has reported to the U.S. Embassy that the recent wave of indignation sweeping throughout Korea was the result of the publication of a story to the effect that an American missionary had branded the cheeks of a Korean boy "thief." Miller has verified the following, which was published by Korean newspapers, namely, that Dr. Haysmier, a Seventh Day Adventist Medical Missionary, connected with the mission at Pingyang, caught a young boy stealing apples from his orchard. He summoned the mother and threatened to hand the youth over to the police. On the mother pleading with the doctor, he thereupon called a nurse to bring acid, with which he painted the Korean words "thief" on each cheek. The incident occurred in September and was believed to have been forgotten when the boy was recently forced to quit school, because of the ridicule over his branded cheeks. Then the story became public, and widespread indignation was felt by Koreans. Whereupon he doctor reimbursed the boy mother and also offered a public apology. Notwithstanding payment and the apology, it is expected that charges will be filed against the doctor in the Korean prefectural courts.

The Japanese vernacular newspapers are now also expressing indignation and urging that Hayemier should be expelled from the country.—Reuter.

The settlement has thus been nim. rapidly achieved. M. Caillaux only landed at Croydon Aerodrome at others interested are invited to one o'clock this afternoon, and an strend. agreement was announced at seven o'clock this evening. British-Wire-
